Dead Souls' Vacation A once-popular musician in Tbilisi is now jobless, joyless and crammed into a shoebox-sized one-room apartment with his elderly mother, leaving little space for independence or optimism in this absurd, intimate slice of ex-Soviet life.

Pavilion How do dreams survive in an old cinema building that has seen its own fortunes ebb and flow over seasons? A palace of hope. A warehouse of layered memories that float up to the glass hotels that hang like spaceships above the darkened city. Where two big dogs and an emotional cat are wandering around. Where a yellow kimono saves you from winter frost. Which wall cracks do ghosts sneak in from?
